The Society of London Theatre Box Office Data Report Order Form

Please complete and return

The Box Office Data Report is published annually. Researched and written by Richard Andrews of Performance Report, it provides detailed information on attendances and audience trends for the previous year, including seasonal variations. The latest report (Box Office Data 2009) is available now.

The Box Office Data Report is essential reading for theatre investors, producers, marketing managers and box offices, as well as the academic sector.
